YELLOW JACK

Continues To Spread In The Infected Cities.

Cool Spell May Help To Stop The Disease From Increasing.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 20.—Forty-five new cases and no deaths is the Key West report for the past twenty-four hours. The people on the mainland are rather inclined to protest against the sponging vessels being permitted to go out from Key West, as there is a likelihood of some of the crews landing in Florida soil.

SPREADS AT MISSISSIPPI.

Fever Cases Are Mild, But Some Alarm Is Felt.

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 20.—Not over six or eight towns in Mississippi now maintain quarantines against Jackson and all trains are running on schedule time. The Secretary of the State Board of Health advises interior towns to let down their lines at once and allow traffic to proceed, as there is no longer any further danger of infection from this source.

Frost is predicted for to-night. Reports received at the Board of Health office from Mississippi City are not encouraging. Dr. Gant writes that the fever has appeared on the outside of the original cordon, and, while the cases are very mild, he fears a general spread will occur.

HERE'S YOUR WEATHER.

A Drop of 65 Degrees In Ten Days.

Ten days ago we were sweltering in the hottest weather for years, with the mercury standing at 103 in the shade. Yesterday morning there was a drop to 38 and a general hustling around for thicker clothing and overcoats. Straw hats were laid aside. Small boys hunted up their shoes and stockings. Summer screens were taken down and grates cleaned out. Ice cream suppers were called off. Coal men looked bland and smiling and the ice men looked correspondingly depressed. In fact Bill Taylor's visit was accompanied by a drop of 65 degrees in the temperature and everybody is talking about the frosty conditions that will make his visit memorable.

Never mind, boys, Bryan will be here next month and we will warm things up again.

NO LONGER ELIGIBLE.

A Prospective Candidate For Councilman Becomes A Federal Office Holder.

E. M. Flack has accepted the position of Census Supervisor for the second district and has received his commission as such, signed by President McKinley. As a Federal office holder is not eligible for city Councilman it is not likely that the talk of opposition to Councilman Wall from this source will materialize.

MARRIED IN NASHVILLE.

And Returned to This City to Make Their Home.

Mr. J. H. Cates, of this city, and Miss Mary L. Armitage, of Nashville, were married Wednesday afternoon in the latter city. They arrived here the same night and have gone to housekeeping. Mr. Cates was a widower and his bride is a sister of his first wife.

Married yesterday afternoon, Mr. Arthur Wood, of Danville, Ky., to Miss Anna Pender, of Madisonville, Ky., by the Rev. J. D. Irvin, at his residence on North Main street.

TAYLOR TALKS.

Says The Republicans Will Go Out With Flying Colors.

Awfully Opposed To The Ballot Reform Law, But Dodges The Separate Coach Question.

While there was no general outpouring to hear Gen. Taylor Wednesday, his crowd was large enough to comfortably fill the court house, and at times there was considerable enthusiasm among the white Republicans. About 100 negroes were present, but there was but little applause from that side of the house, and when Taylor refused point-blank to give his position on the separate coach law, the colored contingent maintained a disgusted silence.

The speaking was advertised to begin at one o'clock, but at that hour only about 300 people were in the court room. The bell was energetically rung up and down the streets and when the speaker began at 1:25 there were about 375 people on hand. Others came in later and probably 450 people heard the speech. There were about a dozen ladies and the Asylum crowd, that tried so hard to prevent Taylor's nomination, was out in force and did much of the clapping.

Gen. Taylor was introduced by Judge James Breathitt, who said he had sprung from the people and had risen by his own exertions, but he did not dwell any considerable length of time on his pedigree.

General Taylor at once began a fierce onslaught upon the Goebel law and the English language. He spoke for nearly two hours and a half. He discussed in a general way the conditions of the country under Republican and Democratic administrations, claiming a great many things that were not true, and attempting to hold the Democratic administration responsible for the panic of 1893. He ridiculed the evils of the trust system, defended the conquest of the Philippines and upheld the single gold standard.

He then turned his attention to state matters and every five minutes digressed from other matters to take a fresh whack at the Goebel law. He grew revolutionary at times in discussing this measure that makes it impossible for Mark Hanna to buy Kentucky, and advised his partisans to defy the law and "stand by the ballot boxes and see their votes counted and drive away every man who tried to prevent it."

This advice coming from the very fountain head of Hannanis in Kentucky, shows how desperate the baffled conspirators are when confronted with a law making it impossible to steal elections in the future.

He declared that the Democrats made no serious effort to pass the Chin school book bill. That the reason Indiana had a cheap book bill was because it was a Republican State. He then took up the Chin book bill and ridiculed it and its author. Said it was written by one of Jack Chin's boys who spelled physiology "fiziology."

He then turned against the Republican Indiana law and said Kentuckians would not use the cheap books used in Indiana. Kentuckians did not ride $20 horses nor would they use ten cent books for their children. He tried to be funny along this line and attempted to prove by figures that Indiana's cheap books cost $700,000 a year more than Kentucky's high priced ones. In spite of the fact that samples of the books used in the two states were laid upon his stand at Calhoun he repeated the statement that the Indiana books were of cheaper material and binding. He got on both sides of the book question and finally wound up by declaring that the present system was good enough.

He complained bitterly because the Democrats rescued the penitentiaries from Republican misrule in the middle of a term and made the statement without giving the proof that the change had cost the state $60,000 in one year. He never alluded to the scandals in the penitentiaries and in the asylums that made it necessary for Gov. Bradley himself to turn out all of his first appointed Superintendents "in the middle of their terms."

He never alluded to the scandals in the penitentiaries and in the asylums that made it necessary for Gov. Bradley himself to turn out all of his first appointed Superintendents "in the middle of their terms."

He paid his respects to the Courier-Journal, intimating that its support had been bought by the promise of the public printing.

He appealed to the Prohibitionists, the Populists and the Brown followers to bolt their own tickets and vote for him, declaring that the Democrats rescued the penitentiaries from Republican misrule in the middle of a term and made the statement without giving the proof that the change had cost the state $60,000 in one year. Taylor Forced to Talk at Call on the Separate Coach Question.

Got Mad But Finally Said He Was Opposed to the Law Separating the Races.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 18.—Candidate Taylor was cornered at Calhoun on the separate coach question, and after declining at first to give any expression, finally made the declaration that he was opposed to the law.

Hon. La Vega Clements, of Owensboro, had an appointment there for to-day to speak on behalf of the Democratic ticket. When Mr. Taylor arrived, the Democrats, recognizing the courtesy due the gubernatorial candidate of the opposition, made a proposition that Mr. Clements speak first for an hour and then allow Mr. Taylor all the time he wanted. This arrangement was accepted by Mr. Taylor and the Republican committee.

The negotiations were concluded about a quarter after 12 o'clock, but at that hour it was found that Hal Corbett, a Brownie orator, had taken possession of the court house and was speaking. Corbett was ostensibly filling an appointment made for Theodore Hallam. He harangued for an hour and a half to the crowd that had assembled to hear the other two speakers. After Corbett had subsided, Mr. Clements spoke for an hour, discussing the issues of the campaign and making a fine impression. At the close of his speech he read the following series of questions that had been laid on the desk and called upon Mr. Taylor for an answer to each and all of them:

"Are you in favor of the separate coach law?

"If elected Governor would you sign a bill for its repeal?

"If elected Governor would you sign a bill if presented to you amending the law by striking out the following words in Section 795 of the Kentucky Statutes, viz: 'Each compartment of the coach divided by a good and sufficient partition with a door therein shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this act,' and which bill in lieu thereof required the railroads to furnish to colored people a separate coach fitted up with the same conveniences and accommodations as coaches furnished by the railroads to white passengers?"

"State your position fully on this matter, and what you intend to do for the colored people in case you are elected Governor."

Mr. Taylor appeared to be very much offended at the questions, and replied in an irritated way that he "would not answer any questions prepared by these agents running around in Goebel's interest."

"Let Goebel meet me face to face and ask them," he said, "and I will answer them."

Later in his speech, however, he referred to the questions again, and said that he was opposed to the law.

The most remarkable statement made by Mr. Taylor, however, was the following:

"I have assurance that every bolting Democrat is sending up a prayer that I may be elected Governor."

The Letter "E."

A thoughtless contemporary having assailed the letter "e," Editor Halsey, of the Tullahomaian up in Tennessee, comes to the rescue as follows: "An enchanter says 'e' is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is never in cash, always in debt and never out of danger. It forgets that the aforesaid letter is never in war, but always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no water, no bread, no meat, no life, no gospel, no Jesus, no father, no mother, brother, sister, home or heaven."

OFFICIAL PROGRAM.

Dewey Reception Will be a Hand some Souvenir Well Worth Preserving.

The preparation of the New York State official program of the Dewey reception is now in progress, and orders are received from all over the country and abroad for this great popular souvenir of this national event, which indicates the interest manifested by the general public in the great reception to be extended to Admiral Dewey on his arrival in New York, September 28. The State legislative committee, of which Senator John Raines is chairman, has perfected all arrangements for the Dewey reception.

Mr. George T. Parker has returned from Washington, where he had been in consultation with the navy and other officials. The indications now are that from an artistic standpoint the State program will be equal, if not superior, to any souvenir program of like nature ever published. The official design adopted by the committee is an illuminated cover illustrating the life of Admiral Dewey from his entrance to the Naval Academy to the battle of Manila Bay, which is life-like and realistic. The vivid picture of the "Man behind the guns" is but a fitting tribute to the gallant men who fought with Dewey on that memorable May morning. The portrait of Dewey in the center, under the eagle and flags, represents the "fighting Commodore" in his uniform as Admiral of the Navy of the United States. Scenes from the battle of Manila Bay, and other interesting matter, and among other features an engraved reproduction of the sword to be presented to Admiral Dewey, as well as a fac-simile of his commission as Admiral, signed by the President of the United States, and sent to the Admiral on behalf of the people and Congress of his country.

Portraits of national, state and city authorities will be likewise included, the Senate and Assembly of the state will be well represented by engraved portraits of the senators and members. Many other features, together with the full official program of the naval and land parades, will make this program well worthy of preservation as a memento of an extraordinary event in the history of the Empire State.

Orders, enclosing the price, 25 cents postal note, should be sent to George T. Parker, Treasurer, 253 Broadway, New York, and they will receive prompt attention.

Poultry Associations.

After deep study and careful consideration it is very hard to decide as to who receives the most benefit from poultry associations. I might answer the question in this way: Everyone who is connected or attends is benefited.

One would naturally say, the fancy breeder gets the benefit; but, there is the farmer who opens his heart and attends, and the exhibition is evidently benefited. Suppose a lot of farmers were to give an exhibition of their common barnyard fowls. Don't you believe that an exhibition of that kind would awaken such an interest that every man who exhibited a dunghill the first year would show a thoroughbred the second year? Why, surely he would, for this reason: His first show would stir up his enthusiasm and awaken him to a knowledge of the fact that he had in his barnyard a miserable lot of profitless fowls that were a drawback to the farm, and besides he would want the best at the coming exhibition, and in a short time he would have the best fowls money could procure. When he found he had so greatly improved his flock of poultry he could naturally attend the exhibitions to be in line with other farmers and keep abreast of the times. It would have a tendency to bring about a realization that all of his stock could be made better by a more systematic way of breeding.

If you do not believe what I tell you, go to the farm of a man who has first class horses, cattle, sheep swine and poultry, and you will see a progressive farmer and a man who has money to loan instead of a plaster on his farm. Yet how few look at it in that light!

Another reason why the farmer should attend is that by so doing he strengthens the association and furthers the interests of better poultry. My advice is to farmer and fancier alike, form associations; whenever it is possible hold shows and improve the flocks in your vicinity, and better the condition of your pocket books.—Buckeye in Ohio Poultry Journal.

When Mr. Taylor arrived, the Democrats, recognizing the courtesy due the gubernatorial candidate of the opposition, made a proposition that Mr. Clements speak first for an hour and then allow Mr. Taylor all the time he wanted. This arrangement was accepted by Mr. Taylor and the Republican committee.

The negotiations were concluded about a quarter after 12 o'clock, but at that hour it was found that Hal Corbett, a Brownie orator, had taken possession of the court house and was speaking. Corbett was ostensibly filling an appointment made for Theodore Hallam. He harangued for an hour and a half to the crowd that had assembled to hear the other two speakers. After Corbett had subsided, Mr. Clements spoke for an hour, discussing the issues of the campaign and making a fine impression. At the close of his speech he read the following series of questions that had been laid on the desk and called upon Mr. Taylor for an answer to each and all of them:

"Are you in favor of the separate coach law?

"If elected Governor would you sign a bill for its repeal?

"If elected Governor would you sign a bill if presented to you amending the law by striking out the following words in Section 795 of the Kentucky Statutes, viz: 'Each compartment of the coach divided by a good and sufficient partition with a door therein shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this act,' and which bill in lieu thereof required the railroads to furnish to colored people a separate coach fitted up with the same conveniences and accommodations as coaches furnished by the railroads to white passengers?

"State your position fully on this matter, and what you intend to do for the colored people in case you are elected Governor."

Mr. Taylor appeared to be very much offended at the questions, and replied in an irritated way that he "would not answer any questions prepared by these agents running around in Goebel's interest."

"Let Goebel meet me face to face and ask them," he said, "and I will answer them."

Later in his speech, however, he referred to the questions again, and said that he was opposed to the law.

The most remarkable statement made by Mr. Taylor, however, was the following:

"I have assurance that every bolting Democrat is sending up a prayer that I may be elected Governor."

The Letter "E."

A thoughtless contemporary having assailed the letter "e," Editor Halsey, of the Tullahomaian up in Tennessee, comes to the rescue as follows: "An exchange says 'e' is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is never in cash, always in debt and never out of danger. It forgets that the aforesaid letter is never in war, but always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no water, no bread, no meat, no life, no gospel, no Jesus, no father, no mother, brother, sister, home or heaven."

OFFICIAL PROGRAM.

Dewey Reception Will be a Hand-some Souvenir Well Worth Preserving.

The preparation of the New York State official program of the Dewey reception is now in progress, and orders are received from all over the country and abroad for this great popular souvenir of this national event, which indicates the interest manifested by the general public in the great reception to be extended to Admiral Dewey on September 28. The State legislative committee, of which Senator John Raines is chairman, has perfected all arrangements for the Dewey reception.

Mr. George T. Parker has returned from Washington, where he had been in consultation with the navy and other officials. The indications now are that from an artistic standpoint the State program will be equal, if not superior, to any souvenir program of like nature ever published. The official design adopted by the committee is an illuminated cover illustrating the life of Admiral Dewey from his entrance to the Naval Academy to the battle of Manila Bay, which is life-like and realistic. The vivid picture of the "Man behind the guns" is but a fitting tribute to the gallant man who fought with Dewey on that memorable May morning. The portrait of Dewey in the center, under the eagle and flags, represents the "fighting Commodore" in his uniform as Admiral of the Navy of the United States. Scenes from the battle of Manila Bay, and other interesting matter, and among other features an engraved reproduction of the sword to be presented to Admiral Dewey, as well as a fac-simile of his commission as Admiral, signed by the President of the United States, and sent to the Admiral on behalf of the people and Congress of his country.

Portraits of national, state and city authorities will be likewise included, the Senate and Assembly of the state will be well represented by engraved portraits of the senators and members. Many other features, together with the full official program of the naval and land parades, will make this program well worthy of preservation as a memento of an extraordinary event in the history of the Empire State. Orders, enclosing the price, 25 cents postal note, should be sent to George T. Parker, Treasurer, 253 Broadway, New York, and they will receive prompt attention.

Two Hundred Dollars GIVEN AWAY.

In order to introduce our Beautiful Flowering Bulbs we have decided to give $200.00 in cash to the person making the longest list of words formed from the letters as follows:

F-L-O-W-E-R-S

Take the letters as shown here and form as many words as you can, using the letters backwards or forwards, but don't use any letter in the same word more times than it appears in the word "Flowers." It is interesting and instructive to see how many small words can be correctly spelled using only these seven letters, for example, go, down, flow, etc., etc. The Eagle Bulb & Seed Company will pay $200.00 in cash to the person making the largest list of words formed as above. If you are good at word making and wish to earn the $200.00 write your name and address plainly on your list and enclose the same with fifteen two-cent stamps for ten Beautiful Flowering Bulbs of ten colors and different varieties. Our object in giving this $200.00 is to attract attention to and introduce our Bulbs all over the world. This offer will be carefully and conscientiously carried out and it should not be classed with "Catching-penny affairs." We will spend a large amount of money to introduce our Bulbs and want your trial order. You will receive the greatest value in Bulbs ever offered. If two or more persons succeed in making the same number of words the $200.00 will be divided equally between them. Many extra special prizes of value will be awarded to all persons who send in at least ten words and who will agree to assist in introducing our Bulbs to their friends. Satisfaction is absolutely guaranteed or your money will be promptly refunded. Send your list as early as possible. Address

Poultry Associations.

After deep study and careful consideration it is very hard to decide as to who receives the most benefit from poultry associations. I might answer the question in this way: Everyone who is connected or attends is benefited.

One would naturally say, the fancy breeder gets the benefit; but, there is the farmer who owns his heart and attends, and the exhibition is evidently benefited. Suppose a lot of farmers were to give an exhibition of their common barnyard fowls. Don't you believe that an exhibition of that kind would awaken such an interest that every man who exhibited a dunghill the first year would show a thoroughbred the second year? Why, surely he would, for this reason: His first show would stir up his enthusiasm and awaken him to a knowledge of the fact that he had in his barnyard a miserable lot of profitless fowls that were a drawback to the farm, and besides he would want the best at the coming exhibition, and in a short time he would have the best fowls money could procure. When he found he had so greatly improved his flock of poultry he could naturally attend the exhibitions to be in line with other farmers and keep abreast of the times. It would have a tendency to bring about a realization that all of his stock could be made better by a more systematic way of breeding.

If you do not believe what I tell you, go to the farm of a man who has first class horses, cattle, sheep, swine and poultry, and you will see a progressive farmer and a man who has money to loan instead of a plaster on his farm. Yet how few look at it in that light!

Another reason why the farmer should attend is that by so doing he strengthens the association and furthers the interests of better poultry. My advice is to farmer and fancier alike, form associations; whenever it is possible hold shows and improve the flocks in your vicinity, and better the condition of your pocket books.—Buckeye in Ohio Poultry Journal.

BRYAN IN OCTOBER.

Date Postponed at the Request of the Campaign Committee.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Mr. Bryan, at the request of the Democratic Campaign Committee of Kentucky, has postponed his visit to Kentucky until the middle of October. He had written Senator Blackburn, agreeing to commence his work for the Kentucky Democracy at any time after September 25, but after a conference with National Committeeman Woodson at the Sherman house this morning, he gave out a statement to the press that he would not go to Kentucky until October 15.

The advantage of this arrangement is apparent. It is proposed to have Mr. Bryan to join Goebel and Blackburn in a grand rallying finish during the last weeks of the campaign. The exact places he will visit and the number of speeches he will make are to be arranged later.

Mr. Bryan inquired particularly about the situation in Kentucky. He is deeply solicitous for the success of the Democratic ticket and the election of a Democratic legislature. He declares that all quibbling about the Louisville convention should end and Democrats should look the situation in the face and determine only whether they can afford to stand four more years of Republican administration, six more years of Republican representation in the senate, and allow the Republicans to have the moral effect throughout the country of carrying Kentucky again. He will make speeches in Kentucky that will be irresistible to every Democrat who loves his party.

McChesney's Reply.

Replying to statements made in Republican and bolting paper that he had favored the book trust in the adoption of the text books for Livingston county, while he was superintendent of the schools in that county, Mr. H. V. McChesney, the Democratic nominee for superintendent of public instruction, says in his paper, the Smithland Banner:

"The papers publish this copy and endeavor to lead the reader to believe that McChesney and his board of examiners were in sympathy with the book trust when they adopted the American Book company's books. Just here is where the stupidity of the whole thing appears. Every man in Kentucky with any degree of intelligence knows that when we speak of the book trust we do not refer to the American Book company alone, but to Ginn & Co., D. C. Heath & Co. and every other company selling books in Kentucky. It makes no difference which company books are adopted in a county, the people of that county pay the trust price for books."

Now, a word as to the adoption in Livingston county. When McChesney became superintendent of Livingston county's schools he found the American Book company's books in use; and when he and his board of examiners, in compliance with the law, re-adopted books, they saw no reason why they should put the people of the county to three or four thousand dollars expense by changing from the American Book company's books, when the other company would also be in the trust, and continue to fleece the people just the same as they had been fleeced, and so the American Book company's books were re-adopted. The board was not in favor of "jumping out of the frying pan into the fire" when the jump would cost the already trust-ridden people of the county an immense amount of money. Now is "McChesney's book adoption" clear?

A Colored Goebel Club. Henderson, Ky., Sept. 18.—At a mass-meeting of the negroes this evening a Goebel Club was formed with a large membership, some of the best colored men of the city joining the club. The Rev. Mitchell, one of the most influential negroes of the city, was the speaker of the evening and scored Taylor on the Separate Coach Bill.

tucky's state officers to dictate Kentucky's laws.

The people are aroused on this question; the fight is on, and McChesney at the "tail of the ticket," joins hands with Goebel at the head and throws down the gauntlet to the book trust, and cites them to Shakespeare's terse English: "Lay on, Macduff, and damned be he who first cries, 'Hold, enough!'"

A PHILANTHROPIST.

He Was Going to Get Rich And Get Up Something to Cool The People Off.

"Yes, sir," exclaimed the man with a linen duster and a high-crowned straw hat, "I'm going to do something to cool the people off."

"What are you going to do?" asked a policeman to whom the stranger had addressed himself.

"You know," he went on, without heeding the question, "that the summer moths are invariably marked by increased outbreaks of all kinds. Men's angry passions seem to raise with the thermometer."

"What were you threatening just now?"

"Threatening?"

"Yes. Said you were going to do something. What are you going to do?"

"I'm going to get rich. I'm going to get some steady employment and save up my money and invest it judiciously and get rich. There's no end of good you can do with riches. Rich men are doing a great deal of good now. They established schools and colleges and libraries and let the people get acquainted with the soothing thoughts of philosophy and the subtilties of science. But in the month of July and August, as a practical criminologist, have doubtless observed philosophy and science don't work. By the time I have got rich there will be all the colleges and libraries that there will be need of, and I will cap the summit of our civilization with a bequest for a mammoth marble refrigerator in each town, so that when anybody feels his indignation rising he can go there and wander up and down the stately corridors and cool off."

HORSEBACK TRIP.

Senator Goebel Still Speaking in Mountains Towns:

Prestonburg, Ky., Sept. 16.—(By special messenger to White House, Ky., Sept. 18.)—A crowd of 800 people, most of whom had traveled from 10 to 20 miles over mountain roads, heard Senator Goebel and Captain Blackburn speak for the Democratic ticket to-day. The reception accorded the Democratic leader was most enthusiastic. A cavalcade of 150 horsemen with a band mounted on improvised seats in a farm wagon met Senator Goebel's party two miles out of town and the entrance to the little city was a noisy and inspiring one. The speaking occurred this afternoon in a beautiful little park in the center of the town and the speeches were splendidly received.

Floyd county gives a Democratic majority of from 375 to 400 in a total vote of 2,300. It gave Bryan 408 and Fitzpatrick 432. The Democrats here say the county is in excellent condition. There are not more than 20 bolters and the county will give Goebel 350 sure.

Senator Goebel's party leaves tomorrow for Pikeville, 20 miles from here. From Pikeville the route will be over the roughest road in the mountains, 50 miles to Hindman, then 35 miles to Salyersville, then 20 miles to West Liberty and then 20 miles more to Morehead where the party will again reach the railroad.

The State Convention of the W. C. T. U. convenes at Owensboro to day.

President Diaz, of Mexico, has been granted a leave of absence and will visit Chicago.

Don't complain about the cold snap. It was just the thing that was needed to stop the yellow fever.

The meeting of the State Board of Election Commissioners was postponed Wednesday on account of the funeral of Mrs. Blackburn. It was held yesterday.

New York is now in a fever of excitement over the Dewey Reception next Thursday. The parade is to be a record-breaker.

Rev. J. H. James, a life long Republican of Owensboro, made a speech in that city Saturday night declaring that he would vote for Goebel.

Taylor has at last been smoked out and has gone with Rastus on the separate coach issue. All the same he doesn't ride in the Jim Crow car himself.

Mr. Jno. A. Haldeman, one of the three sons of Mr. W. N. Haldeman, and business manager of the Louisville Times, died Monday, aged 44 years. He leaves a wife and three daughters.

Capt. Dreyfus is free at last, but we are not yet done with the Dreyfus case. The pardoned man says he will devote the rest of his life to the work of establishing his innocence and clearing his name.

Former Chief Justice Belvard J. Peters died at Mt. Sterling Monday in the 94th year of his age. He made speeches for Bryan in 1896, at the age of 91 years. He was Chief Justice of Kentucky in 1874.

When Senator Goebel gets out of the mountains and learns that Col. Caldwell, Russellville, has written him an "open letter," he will be tempted to cancel his dates and return to the hills and hollows and call upon the mountains to fall upon Bob Lander and Hiram Smith have been given a list of joint appointments by the Republican campaign committee, beginning at Arlington Oct. 2 and covering Hopkins, Webster, Union, Henderson, Crittenden, Caldwell, Lyon, McCracken, Trigg, Todd, Logan, Warren and Muhlenberg counties, and closing at Greenville Oct. 21. The first named was the plaintiff in the test case on the separate coach law, carried up to the Court of Appeals a few years ago. He will probably devote at least a part of his speech to Taylor's attitude on this question—if he can find out what it is.

Our old friend Col. John C. Day, formerly tobacco auctioneer in this city, has turned up as one of the new Democratic district chairman in Louisville. The Courier Journal has this reference to him:

"John C. Day is a native of Virginia, but came to this city many years ago from Christian county. He is now the oldest auctioneer on the tobacco breakers, and one of the best. Though past the half-century mark he is still an ardent worker in the Democratic party."

Uncle Phil Thompson, a Brownie sage, has over-ruled the Court of Appeals and published a decision in the Louisville Post, in which he claims to have discovered a technical error in the passage of the election law that makes it invalid and of no effect. Uncle Phil forgets that the bill was passed a second time to correct errors, including the error of Gov. Bradley in vetoing so good a law.

Diligent inquiry develops the fact that only two fifty cent pieces have been put in the "Coleman Slot" in this city. There may have been others, but they have said nothing about it. As not less than 1000 letters with two-cent stamps came to Hopkinsville, Bro. Coleman is $19.00 behind in this city. Goebel is several votes ahead.

We were afraid Bill Owens was going to slight us, but we will have the satisfaction of hearing his famous address to men only next prayer-meeting night. Now if that other delightfully cute purificationist, Bill Sweeney, will only come this way, we will try to worry along without the rest of the Brownies.

There is a scheme being talked of in New York to make Greater New York and one or two adjacent counties into the State of Manhattan. It would have nearly 4,000,000 population and in area would be a little larger than Delaware.

Taylor declared in his speech that he would treasure as a sacred souvenir the pen with which he as "Governor" would sign the bill repealing an obnoxious law passed by the Democrats. P. S.—It was the Goebel law, not the Separate Coach law.

Taylor has a way of shutting his eyes while speaking, and going it blind. He has also fallen into the equally awkward habit of shutting his eyes to the truth.

Court Orders.

Walter Cansler has been appointed overseer of the Sand Lick road from Frank Pool's to Sand Lick bridge and M. L. Porter will have charge of the Crofton and Castleberry road from Castleberry church to Lill Dunning's.

Dr. Jackson Out.

The many friends of Dr. J. B. Jackson will be glad to learn that he has about recovered from his recent severe illness. He is now able to be out and has resumed the practice of his profession.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.

There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional treatment, which consists in an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tubes. When this tube is inflamed you have a ringing sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever.

In cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

is coming to vote against Goebel.

"Walls of the penitentiary stood like a 'Charred image of Satan, as a memento of the sad past.'

"He gave it away."

"The eagle mounts to his ery."

The whole tenor of the speech was coarse, undignified and characterized by ignorant and reckless statements. Taylor is the most conspicuous example of the shrewd, audacious demagogue who has ever spoken here.

In the stand he is totally without dignity or manners. Although there were ladies in the audience, he repeatedly doubled up his leg like the blade of a half-open jack-knife and laid it upon the judge's desk in front of him, three feet high. Once or twice he went further than that and placed his foot on top of the desk, assuming an attitude of a jumping-jack. Again he would lean far over the desk in a wallowing position and attempt to guy the reporters, by telling them to "write that down, won't you" and other such ill-bred remarks. In some respects Sam Jones might obtain pointers from Bill Taylor. Sam's Scriptural quotations however are generally pretty correct, but Taylor stultified himself every time he tried to quote the Bible. His "Hardened their necks and believed a lie that they might be damned" raised a hoarse laugh all over the room. Aside from the fact that his under lip is thick and rolling downward, Taylor is rather a good looking man. He has black hair and eyes and is a fine specimen of physical development. It is only when he talks that he appears to such a disadvantage.

We do not know how to size him up any better than to say that he appears to be a pretty good match for Broncho Franks, with possibly a little more sense, but wholly without the graces of oratory that Franks possesses to some extent when in action.

The best thing he got off was when he made the grandiloquent declaration that "we have on hand $318,000 and when we go out we will go out with colors flying."

The confession that he expected to go out was a break that greatly dimmed the Democrats present and the sentiment was cheered in a way that left the speaker in a hacked and dazed condition, until he saw the point.

At the conclusion of his speech some one in the audience asked him how he stood on the Separate Coach Law. He refused to answer, but in turn asked the man, "Who are you that you ask me questions?" Then he added, "If you want any questions asked, let Goebel ask them. I said at Calhoun all I want to say on that question. Go read my Calhoun speech."

The white Republicans cheered but Rastus did not join in the applause.

Debo and Dr. James, who were billed to speak also were not in evidence.

BUDGET FROM "BUCK."

Numerous News Items From the Village of Bennettstown.

Bennettstown, Ky., Sept. 21.—The Rev. C. E. Perryman has bought property in this place and moved his family here from Princeton, where they will make their future home.

A union meeting will commence at the Presbyterian church here next Sunday. Rev. J. C. Tate, the pastor, will be assisted in the series of meetings by Rev. Dowell Fleming, of Memphis, and Rev. Arthur King, of Clarksville. There will be preaching both morning and evening throughout the week.

The series of meetings being held at Little River church are largely attended and much good has already resulted. Among those who have made professions is Mr. Columbus Gilbert, who is 65 years old. The meeting is being conducted by Rev. C. E. Perryman, assisted by his brother, Rev. J. L. Perryman, of Fulton, Ky. Four converts were baptized yesterday morning. The meeting may continue several days longer.

The annual Flat Lick hunt took place Tuesday. Messrs. J. S. Jobe, C. S. Coleman and R. F. Farnsworth, of this place; P. D. Dawson, W. E. Mitchell, Frank Rickman and Earl Mitchell, of Herndon; Will Dawson, Charles Bagby and Dick Dawson of Roaring Springs; W. E. Adcock, of Church Hill, and J. J. VanCleve, of Hopkinsville, composed the party. The day was a poor one for squirrel hunting, however, and only about forty of the cunning little animals were bagged. An excellent dinner was served in the woods and greatly enjoyed by the party. It was decided that on the occasion of next year's hunt a sheep be barbecued the night before and a regular camp dinner served.

TO RECALL HUNTER.

United States Citizens in Central America Sign a Round Robin.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 19.—From authoritative advices received in New Orleans today, the sentiment existing in Central America against W. Godfrey Hunter, the American minister to Honduras, Guatemala, Nicaragua and Salvador, has crystallized and movement is now on foot to have him recalled. To this end the American residents of these four republics have joined in a "round robin." This round robin recites the grievances of the American residents of Central America, and especially the alleged indifference of the American minister toward their claims from the respective governments of the rights due American citizens.

It is stated in the "round robin" that Hunter is not only incompetent, but that he is so tied up with the Central American governments in different schemes that he can take no stand against them.

The "round robin" is signed by four-fifths of the citizens of the United States now in Central America. It will arrive on the next steamer and will be immediately forwarded to the secretary of state at Washington.

SUPPORT OF GOEBEL.

Harmony Call Issued to the Democratic Party By the National Committee.

The Democratic National Committee has issued from Chicago the following call for harmony in the party and especially in Kentucky.

The National Committee of the Democratic party, in session at Chicago to consider the work of party organization preparatory to the campaign of 1900, sends greeting to the Democracy of the nation, with the assurance that the prospect of Democratic success next year grows brighter every day, and we have every reason for confidence as to the outcome. The great need now is party unity and thorough organization.

The committee appeals therefore to our party friends in all states, and especially in the states where elections are to be held this year, to put aside all local differences whenever they exist and support the regular party ticket earnestly and enthusiastically, keeping always in view the great struggle of next year, and remembering that in unity there is strength and in division weakness. Especially do we appeal to the Kentucky Democracy to give loyal support to the regular ticket in that state, headed by Mr. Goebel, and thereby make a sure Democratic victory in the state and the return of ex-Senator Blackburn to the Senate of the United States.

SOLDIERS TO BE SHOT.

Otis Very Severe in Punishing Privates—How About Officers?

Chicago, Sept. 19.—A dispatch to Times-Herald from Washington says: Privates Damoffer and Coine, sentenced to death by court-martial for assaulting Philippine women, will not receive any mercy at the hands of the President. The sentence of the court-martial will be carried out as soon as the proceedings and findings in the two cases can be revised and approved by him, unless there should be some irregularity about the proceedings.

It is stated upon high authority that the President has fully determined not to interfere in any way in the execution of the sentence of court-martial. He reached this conclusion on the receipt to-day of a message from Gen. Otis, in answer to an inquiry from the War Department, confirming the newspaper representations of the crime committed by these two men and the sentence imposed by the court-martial. Gen. Otis further stated he would forward at once all the papers in the case for review by the War Department, as required by laws and regulations.

No Change in Prevailing Prices of Last Week.

There was no change in the tobacco market this week, prices ranging about the same as those of last week. Sales amounted to 250 bushels, the offerings being only slightly in excess of the sales. Medium to good leaf ranged in price from $4.25 to $9.50, common to medium leaf from $4.25 to 6.25 and lugs went off at from $3 to $4.75. Receipts were light. About 90 per cent. of the present crop has been put in the house and by to-morrow night the entire crop will be under shelter.

SHE LOVED HIM

But When It Came to Marrying
That Was an Entirely Different Thing.

A loving couple on the amphitheater at the fair grounds Saturday attracted about as much attention as did any of the rings. They were from the country and seemed to think they were off in the woods somewhere and the thousands of people who moved about them were apparently unnoticed. Now and then the man would place his arm gently around the object of his affections and pull her to him would imprint dozens of kisses upon her cheeks and mouth. She seemed not to mind it a bit and the marks of affection were appreciated and enjoyed by both the man and woman. Now and again he would push her from him and say "You don't love me?" "Yes I do," she would answer. "Then why won't you marry me?" he would ask appealingly. "Oh loving and marrying are two entirely different things," she would invariably answer. Then the man would look sullen and the woman would look coy. Finally he would again place his arm around her and the osculatory performance would begin anew. To many persons it was amusing, to others it was disgusting, but to all it was of enough interest to cause a stop and occasion a remark of one kind or another.—Bowling Green Journal.

MOUNTAIN BOY

Divided Time With Crawford And Gave Him a Tussle

Vanceburg, Ky., September 18.—Hon. William A. Young, a Democrat of Morehead, Ky., and Hon. L. J. Crawford, a Republican of Newport, were billed to speak here to-day, and after their arrival a joint debate was arranged. Mr. Crawford thought he had a soft snap in getting an humble mountain boy to divide time with him, but it will no doubt be a long time before he will be willing to again divide time with Mr. Young. The Democrats are wild with delight over the great victory of their young champion, who made a masterly effort, completely demolishing the arguments of Mr. Crawford, who made the unexpected and sensational admission that protection was in a measure responsible for the trusts.

WEAKENED.

Bekner Made a Bluff, But It Was Promptly Called.

Lexington, Ky., September 18.—W. N. Beckner, Whitley County, en route home from Frankfort to-night, stopped at the Palace Hotel. He displayed a state check for $2,200, and said that he would bet it at even money that Taylor would beat Goebel. Asa McGinnis, a local business man, fished a roll of greenbacks out of his jeans and offered to take the bet. Beckner hesitated and McGinnis offered to give him $50 to make the bet. Beckner weakened and caught train for his home.

THE COURT OF APPEALS.

Fall Term Opened Monday at Frankfort—The Norman

Barker Case.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 18.—The fall term of the Kentucky Court of Appeals commenced here to-day. The full court was present, and quite a number of well-known lawyers from different points were in attendance. The time of the court was taken up in hearing motions and petitions for rehearing of cases decided at the close of the last term.

In the case of the Commonwealth against Norman, Barker and others, Attorney J. Pinckney Greene, of Louisville, appeared for ex-Gov. John Young Brown and asked for an extension of time to file a petition for rehearing. Justice Hazerig responded that the case had been decided last March, and it was unusual to ask for another extension, but that, as the ex-Governor had his hands full just now, he would grant it. Court adjourned until Wednesday morning.

she her saintly, beloved face for the last time. But I have not forgotten her. So many times in these years that have elapsed since I was a boy in the New England hills, I have, with closed eyes and in the moments of solemn, sweet reverie seen dear grandma's lovely face, and heard her loving voice, and felt the caress of her loving touch.

All the love of my life, grandma is so plenteous that I love to speak of her and of the days when I was one of her two little boys. And very far from those sweet, peaceful scenes, a child that hath the grace of grandma's love in his heart—a child is thinking and speaking now of that dear, dead, saintly one, and he blesses her memory.

With such training and environment as are suggested in this tributary world, indeed, if the religious instincts were not strong and positive in the poet. It is a satisfaction to know that the children's poet was a man of deep religious conviction, in spite of the idiosyncrasies of his external life and the unorthodox attitude he assumed. This is plainly shown in the illustrations of his poems with which the author beautifies the relations of parent to child, earthly and heavenly. After speaking of his little one knowing at his study door and saying: "Please let me in—it's only me," he goes ahead and uses the simile:

"Who knew me in eternity,
The infant child shall wait
The stories of a life to be,
Beyond the Heavenly Father's gate?"
And with that Heavenly Father need not wait, for the infant child is only
At the outer edge I plead."
The "I O Father only" is His name, and he is the twenty-third Psalm also a gem. It is not a mere exercise in verse-making, but the breathing of a better longing in the poet's soul, and it deserves a place among the best renderings in verse of the Psalmist's words of simple faith and beauty.

There is no doubt that Eugene Field went much to the loving instruction and example of Grandma Field.

In his youthful days he was a student at the Missouri state university and at Williams and Knox colleges. His father was a distinguished lawyer who he went through every possible experience of childhood with them. He loved them, lost them—three of them—lived with them, played with them, joyed with them and sorrowed with them. Through them he gained the insight of child nature which earned for him his title.

Through them he reached not only fame, but happiness. Some one has said that "For every one of them he had a special name, fitting the nature of the child, as the calyx of the flower fits the bud, and each of them had a special name for him." One of these babies has grown to womanhood, and in her the spirit of her father abides. Two more are fast leaving childhood behind. Only two remain to claim the title of "Eugene Field's Babies." And these two are known as "Posy" and "Little Sister Girl."

Eugene Field revelled in old editions of rare books, and delighted in illuminated missals and monkish legends. He was a friend with his "Prayer of the Bibliophile."

"But if, O Lord, it please Thee
To keep me in temptation's way,
I beseech Thee, as I may be
Most truly tempted, let me not fall."

Which I shall purchase, hold and keep Without which I cannot stand upright."

The desire to know and get knowledge
He not only loved books, but pictures, curiosities of every description, dogs, chickens and birds.

By a supreme exercise of her authority, Mrs. Field contrived to keep the contents of the house, but the books, cards and curiosities occupied every nook and corner of the home at Buena Park.

On Sunday afternoon, November 4, 1895, Eugene Field sat at his library window watching the dead leaves of autumn tossed about in the sunlight of the lawn. Said he only half seriously: "This is the dying time of year. He bowed his head and chanted with a little thinking that before the dawn of another day it would, in truth, be the dying time of year for him. He passed away as he had often wished to do, without the pang of lingering illness, in the midst of work; at the zenith of his strength. He went to meet

A form of disease may become so common that it is regarded as a necessary condition of life. In the valleys of Switzerland goitre, or thick neck, afflicts every inhabitant. A party of American tourists entering one of these valleys was told that the bairns were born with a bony body of fearing children who cried, "See, these people have no goitres," as if to be without goitre was a physical deficiency.

Since the introduction of irregular periods among young women and the commonness of debilitating drains among married women have created the natural condition of goitre. In normal health the periods should be regular and painless and there should be neither pains nor pains for the married. Goitre is possible in every woman who will make a trial of Dr. Pierce's Prescription. It regulates the periods, dries up the drains, and removes the goitre.

Sick women can consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., by letter without charge.

Every letter is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential.

I am a failure in business and had to go bed once a month; had irregular periods which would last ten or twelve days. I was ill all the time.

YOU ARE A DEMOCRAT.

and, of course, want a Democratic newspaper. THE CHICAGO DISPATCH is the Great Democratic Newspaper of the Country. It advocates the readoption of the platform and the renomination of William Jennings Bryan.

There has never been a political campaign that will equal in importance that of the one to be fought next year. The Republican party, backed by the money power of this country and Europe, is alert and aggressive. Flushed with the victory of three years ago it will seek by every means in its power to maintain its supremacy.

Democrats must be up and doing. They must wage an unceasing war upon their enemies. In no better and more effective way can this be done than by the circulation of good, sound Democratic newspapers. The publisher of THE CHICAGO DISPATCH, will send to every new subscriber for three months a copy of THE CHICAGO DISPATCH for ten cents. If you are not already taking this great political weekly, send in ten cents at once. You should not only do this yourself, but you should induce all your friends to join with you. By a little effort you can easily raise a club of ten or twenty subscribers.

THE CHICAGO DISPATCH is indorsed by William Jennings Bryan and other Democratic leaders. Address THE CHICAGO DISPATCH, Monuments.

It is nonsense to believe that you can buy of some agent as cheap as you can of your home shop, where you get the best marble and granite at the lowest possible price. If you will call and see our work and get our prices you will find yourself well paid for the trouble. Yours truly,
